Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

As a practicing physician, I am well trained in analyzing data. I am exposed daily to information that needs to be assimilated in the context of a well founded background. That requires that one be open minded enough to question the background if new information is in discordance, and to be skeptical of data if it conflicts with what is already known.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I have two kids aged 2 and 4. They are at the age when they are each other's best friends and worst enemies. It is my job to be sure that I treat them both fairly. Even if the little one picks on the big one, I recognize that she needs to go to time out despite the fact that the amount of damage she can inflict is much less. This is the most tangible evidence of my impartiality.

At work, I serve as the President of Austin Gastroenterology, PA and differences of opinions arise within partners in our practice. It is my job to serve them all well in a just manner and requires and hones my skills in being impartial.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

Austin is an ever expanding city with a regional growth rate that is highest in the nation. With growth, it brings along the national trend to have an increasing Hispanic population. Despite the demographic shift towards Hispanics, Austin an incredibly diverse city. We have the University of Texas with the students, faculty, and support staff that fill the academic corridor. We are a Hi-Tech center with a professional workforce. We are the Live Music Capital of the World where in the 78704 zip code more people per capita list their primary profession as "Musician" than any other zip code in the U.S. We are the state capital where state agencies, lobbying groups, and government officials convene to do business. We are the gateway to the Hill Country where the outdoor lifestyle thrives and brings to town health conscious people who take advantage of all that Central Texas has to offer. And politically Travis County is light blue, a bastion of compromise and co-existence where all voices are welcome, all voices are heard, and all voices are expected to lend a hand.

THE INDEPENDENT CITIZENS REDISTRICTING COMMISSION

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I think the most important trait that I bring to the Commission is that I am educable. Becoming a Board Certified Gastroenterologist took 14 years of training after high school. I am wired to being a student. I also pride myself in being an educator. I had an award winning radio show for 5 years in Austin teaching people about their health. I continue with that mission weekly on the FOX 7 News on Wednesday mornings. Teaching enhances my abilities as a student which I think is important if one is to contribute positively to creating a fair representation of the constituents of our city.
